Riverside Community College – Student Services Update

Starting this spring, all new students will be required to meet with an academic advisor before they can register for classes. In the past, students were allowed to choose their own courses online, but many ended up taking classes that did not count toward their degree or transfer plans. As a result, some students spent an extra semester, and hundreds of dollars, on credits they did not need.

Advising appointments last about thirty minutes and can be scheduled online, by phone, or in person at the Student Success Center in Building C. Evening and Saturday appointments are available for students who work during the day. Students should bring a copy of their placement results and, if they have attended another college, an unofficial transcript.

Returning students who have already completed at least 15 credits are not affected by the new rule, although advisors strongly encourage them to check in once a year. Students who miss their scheduled appointment will need to rebook, which may delay their registration by up to a week. Since popular classes fill up quickly, the college recommends booking an appointment as early as possible.

For questions, contact Student Services at (555) 014-2290 or visit the center Monday through Friday, 8:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m.

1. What is the main purpose of the notice?
   A To advertise evening and weekend classes at the college
   B To explain a new advising requirement for new students
   C To remind returning students to register for spring classes
   D To announce that the Student Success Center is moving

2. Why did the college introduce the change?
   A Too many students were registering late for classes
   B The online registration system was not working properly
   C Many students had taken classes they did not need for their goals
   D Advisors wanted to meet students in person instead of by phone

3. Which student does NOT need to meet an advisor before registering?
   A A returning student who has completed 18 credits
   B A new student who works during the day
   C A new student who has attended another college
   D A new student who has just received placement results

4. Besides their placement results, what should a student who has attended another college bring?
   A A letter from their previous advisor
   B A copy of their class schedule
   C Proof of their work hours
   D An unofficial transcript

5. In paragraph 3, the phrase "are not affected by the new rule" means that returning students _____.
   A must follow the rule more carefully
   B do not have to follow the rule
   C were not told about the rule
   D disagree with the rule

6. What can be inferred from the notice?
   A Advising appointments are only available on weekdays
   B Returning students must see an advisor every semester
   C Students who book late may not get the classes they want
   D Missing an appointment means a student cannot register that year

To: All Warehouse and Office Staff

From: Daniel Okafor, Operations Manager

Subject: New shift-swap policy

Over the past few months, several of you have told me that the current process for swapping shifts is confusing and slow. At the moment, you have to fill out a paper form, get a signature from your supervisor, and then wait for Human Resources to update the schedule. Sometimes this takes so long that the swap is approved only after the shift has already happened.

Beginning March 1, all shift swaps will be handled through the scheduling app that most of you already use to check your hours. Once you and a coworker agree to trade shifts, one of you submits the request in the app and the other confirms it. Your supervisor will then receive a notification and has 24 hours to approve or reject the swap. If the supervisor does not respond within that time, the request will be approved automatically.

Please keep in mind that swaps are allowed only between employees with the same job training. For example, a forklift operator cannot trade a shift with someone who has not completed forklift certification. Also, no employee may work more than six days in a row, so the app will block any swap that would break this rule.

I realize that not everyone is comfortable with the app yet. If you would like a quick training session, Priya in HR will be running fifteen-minute sessions in the break room next week. Paper forms will still be accepted until the end of February.

Thanks for your patience as we make this change.

7. Why is the company changing its shift-swap policy?
   A The paper process was confusing and sometimes too slow
   B Employees wanted to work more shifts
   C Supervisors refused to sign swap forms
   D HR had lost several schedule requests

8. What happens if a supervisor does not respond to a request within 24 hours?
   A The request is canceled
   B HR makes the final decision
   C The employees must submit a paper form
   D The swap is approved automatically

9. Which swap would the app NOT allow?
   A A swap between two certified forklift operators
   B A swap that would make someone work seven days in a row
   C A swap requested two weeks in advance
   D A swap between two office workers with the same training

10. In paragraph 2, the word "trade" is closest in meaning to _____.
    A exchange B cancel C refuse D extend

11. What can employees do if they are not comfortable using the app?
    A Ask a coworker to submit all their requests
    B Keep using paper forms after March 1
    C Attend a short training session next week
    D Call their supervisor for special permission

12. What can be inferred about the paper forms?
    A They will still be accepted after March 1 for urgent swaps
    B They will no longer be accepted starting in March
    C They must now be signed by HR instead of a supervisor
    D They will be scanned and stored in the app

Erklärungen

1. B – Im ersten Absatz steht, dass alle neuen Studierenden jetzt vor der Anmeldung eine Studienberatung aufsuchen müssen.
2. C – Laut Aushang haben viele Studierende Kurse belegt, die weder für ihren Abschluss noch für ihre Wechselpläne angerechnet wurden.
3. A – Wiederkehrende Studierende mit mindestens 15 Credits sind von der neuen Regel nicht betroffen.
4. D – Im zweiten Absatz werden diese Studierenden gebeten, ein inoffizielles Transcript (Notenübersicht) mitzubringen.
5. B – Wenn eine Regel dich nicht betrifft („does not affect you“), gilt sie nicht für dich („does not apply to you“).
6. C – Laut Aushang sind beliebte Kurse schnell voll – wer spät bucht, findet diese Kurse also möglicherweise belegt vor.
7. A – Im ersten Absatz heißt es, das aktuelle Verfahren sei unübersichtlich und langsam, und Schichttausche würden manchmal zu spät genehmigt.
8. D – In der Mitteilung steht, dass die Anfrage automatisch genehmigt wird, wenn innerhalb von 24 Stunden keine Reaktion erfolgt.
9. B – Niemand darf mehr als sechs Tage am Stück arbeiten, daher blockiert die App solche Tausche.
10. A – „To trade shifts“ bedeutet, Schichten mit einer anderen Person zu tauschen.
11. C – Priya aus der Personalabteilung (HR) hält nächste Woche fünfzehnminütige Schulungen ab.
12. B – Papierformulare werden nur bis Ende Februar angenommen, ab März also nicht mehr.
13. B – „To be in charge of something“ bedeutet, für etwas verantwortlich zu sein.
14. C – „To cut down on something“ bedeutet, weniger davon zu verbrauchen oder zu essen.
15. C – „To put something off“ bedeutet, etwas auf später zu verschieben.
16. D – Eine „open-minded“ Person ist aufgeschlossen und bereit, neue Ideen anzuhören und zu bedenken.
17. A – „Be used to“ bedeutet, mit etwas vertraut zu sein; „not used to“ heißt also, dass es sich noch ungewohnt anfühlt.
18. C – „Have something done“ bedeutet, dass jemand anderes die Arbeit für einen erledigt.
19. B – „To review applications“ bedeutet, Bewerbungen sorgfältig zu lesen und zu bewerten.
20. D – „Despite“ drückt einen Gegensatz aus, und „went ahead“ bedeutet, dass die Veranstaltung wie geplant stattfand.
21. A – „Hardly anyone“ bedeutet „fast niemand“.
22. B – Der Third Conditional beschreibt eine irreale Vergangenheit: Die sprechende Person wusste es nicht und ging nicht früher.
23. C – „Unless“ bedeutet „if not“ (wenn nicht) – ein Antrag ohne Unterschrift wird also abgelehnt.
24. D – „Can't have + Partizip Perfekt (past participle)“ drückt die feste Überzeugung aus, dass etwas nicht passiert ist.
25. C – Die Bibliothek baut sich nicht selbst, daher ist das Passiv im Futur „will be built“ nötig.
26. B – Der First Conditional verwendet das Present Simple im if-Satz und „will“ im Hauptsatz.

© PDFTests.com – Kostenlos für den privaten Gebrauch und den Unterricht

27. A – Das Past Perfect zeigt eine Handlung, die vor einer anderen Handlung in der Vergangenheit abgeschlossen war.
28. D – „That“ ist das Objekt von „looked at“; „where“ ist nicht möglich, weil der Relativsatz bereits eine Präposition enthält und ein Objekt braucht.
29. B – „Wish“ + Past Simple drückt einen Wunsch in Bezug auf eine gegenwärtige Situation aus.
30. A – In der indirekten Rede (reported speech) wird das Present Continuous für einen geplanten Zukunftsplan meist ins Past Continuous zurückversetzt.
31. C – „Forget + -ing“ bezieht sich auf die Erinnerung an ein vergangenes Erlebnis.
32. D – Auf „suggest“ folgt ein Gerundium (gerund), nicht ein Infinitiv oder Objekt + Infinitiv.
33. A – „Should have + Partizip Perfekt“ drückt Kritik oder Bedauern über eine vergangene Handlung aus.
34. C – „Information“ ist im Englischen unzählbar und steht daher mit einem Verb im Singular: „was“, nicht „were“.
35. B – Nach „Not only“ am Satzanfang werden Subjekt und Verb umgestellt (Inversion): „was he“.
36. D – Dieser Mixed Conditional verbindet eine Bedingung in der Vergangenheit mit einem Ergebnis in der Gegenwart, daher ist „would be“ richtig.

Hinweise für Lehrkräfte: Planen Sie etwa 45 Minuten ein; die Lernenden arbeiten ohne Wörterbuch. Als grobe Orientierung: 29 oder mehr richtige Antworten (ca. 80 %) sprechen für ein sicheres B2-Niveau, 22–28 für B2 mit Lücken, weniger als 22 für eine Einstufung auf B1. Der Test zielt auf typische B2-Fehler ab, etwa die Verwechslung von „be used to“ und „used to“, „suggest“ mit Objekt und Infinitiv, die Vermischung von Third Conditional und Mixed Conditional sowie Missverständnisse bei „unless“ und „can't have“. Zur Nachbereitung können die Lernenden falsch beantwortete Sätze in eigenen Worten neu formulieren oder jeden Lesetext in drei Sätzen zusammenfassen.
