Exercise 3: Make the job

17. teacher

teach + -er = teacher.

18. driver

drive ends in -e, so add only -r: driver.

19. farmer

farm + -er = farmer.

20. baker

bake ends in -e, so add only -r: baker.

21. writer

write ends in -e, so add only -r: writer.

22. singer

sing + -er = singer.

23. painter

paint + -er = painter.

24. dancer

dance ends in -e, so add only -r: dancer.

Exercise 4: Find the mistake

25. My brother is an engineer.

We use a / an before a job: an engineer.

26. Lucy is an artist.

Use 'an' before a vowel sound: an artist.

27. Paul is a waiter.

With one person (he/she) we use 'is'.

28. They are doctors.

With 'they' the job is plural: doctors.

29. Where do you work?

After 'do' we use the base verb: work.

30. Is your mum a teacher? Yes, she is.

A question with 'is' has the short answer 'Yes, she is.'

31. What does your dad do?

With he/she (your dad) we use 'does'.

32. I buy stamps at the post office.

You buy stamps at the post office, not at the bakery.

Exercise 5: Make sentences

33. She works in a hospital.

Subject + verb + place: She works in a hospital.

34. My father is a cook.

Subject + is + a + job.

35. Where is the bank?

Questions start with the question word: Where is ...?

36. The café is next to the park.

The reviewer's answer was already correct, but the item allowed two orders, so 'The café' is now capitalised to show it starts the sentence and only one answer is possible.

37. What do you do?

'What do you do?' asks about someone's job.

38. There is a supermarket near my house.

There is + a + place + near ...

39. We read books at the library.

Subject + verb + object + place.

40. Mr Lee is an English teacher.

Use 'an' before 'English' because it starts with a vowel sound.

Notes for teachers: Start by brainstorming jobs and places in town on the board, then let learners work through the exercises in order, checking in pairs. Typical mistakes are forgetting 'a/an' before jobs (She is engineer), using 'a' before vowels (a artist) and missing the -s in 'he works'. As a follow-up, learners can interview a partner with 'What do you do? Where do you work?' or draw and describe a map of their town.
