Answer key – Comparatives and Superlatives – Test 2

1 B	2 C	3 A	4 D	5 C	6 A	7 C	8 D	9 B	10 C
11 B	12 C	13 D	14 A	15 B	16 C	17 B	18 C	19 B	20 D

Explanations

- B – Adjectives ending in consonant + -y change -y to -i and add -er: heavy → heavier.
- C – Long adjectives (three or more syllables) use 'more' + adjective: more expensive.
- A – Happy ends in -y, so the comparative is happier, not 'more happy'.
- D – Short adjectives ending in one vowel + one consonant double the consonant: thin → thinner.
- C – Good is irregular: good → better → best.
- A – Bad is irregular: bad → worse → worst.
- C – Busy ends in -y, so the comparative is busier, not 'more busy'.
- D – We use adjective + -er + than for short adjectives: taller than.
- B – We use 'much' (not 'very') before a comparative to make it stronger.
- C – Less + adjective + than is the opposite of more ... than.
- B – After 'one of' we use the + superlative + plural noun: one of the longest rivers.
- C – Short adjectives form the superlative with the + -est: the tallest.
- D – Long adjectives use the most + adjective: the most beautiful.
- A – The superlative of bad is irregular: the worst.
- B – Far is irregular: far → farther → farthest (or further → furthest).
- C – Busy changes -y to -i and adds -est: busiest.
- B – We don't use 'most' and -est together: the happiest.
- C – The superlative needs 'the' + -est, and we use 'in' with a place: the smallest in the building.
- B – The nearest means closer than all the others in the group.
- D – The least + adjective is the opposite of the most + adjective.
- C – The structure is as + adjective + as when two things are equal.
- A – In negative sentences we use not as + base adjective + as: isn't as good as.
- B – The prices are the same, so we use as ... as.
- D – Comparative questions with adjectives use the verb 'be': Is your brother older...?
- B – A 'which' question needs a name in the answer, and the superlative of good is the best.
- C – When we compare two people we use Who + is + comparative: Who is older?
- B – We repeat the comparative to show a change that continues: longer and longer.
- C – Old is a short adjective, so the superlative is the oldest, not 'the most old'.
- D – The negative structure is not as + adjective + as.
- A – Omar (12) is older than Ella (10) and younger than Ravi (14).

Notes for teachers: Use this test after teaching comparatives and superlatives, or as a diagnostic before revision. It targets typical A2 errors: double comparatives (more busy, most happiest), wrong spelling (thiner, busiest), 'than' instead of 'as' in as...as, and missing 'the' with superlatives. For follow-up, ask students to compare three classmates, cities or products in writing, using one comparative, one superlative and one as... as sentence each.
