Explanations

1. C – June is the sixth month of the year.
2. A – The American flag has stars and stripes on it.
3. B – A holiday for workers is a day that honors people who work.
4. D – Congress meets in the Capitol building in Washington, D.C.; the White House is the President's home.
5. A – To pay taxes means to give money to the government.
6. C – American Indians (Native Americans) lived in America before Europeans arrived.
7. B – The flag has thirteen stripes; fifty is the number of stars.
8. D – Living and working in any state means citizens can move to any state and work there.
9. A – Memorial Day is a day to remember soldiers who died serving the country.
10. C – A mayor is the leader of a city or town.
11. B – The capital is the city where the government of a state or country works.
12. D – After 'her US' we need a noun for the status of being a citizen, which is 'citizenship'.
13. A – We need the passive form 'is elected': people choose the President.
14. C – Senators and Representatives are the members of Congress.
15. A – The common collocation is 'fly a flag', meaning to put it up so people can see it.
16. B – The correct collocation is 'pay taxes'.
17. D – A national anthem is the official song of a country.
18. D – After 'the' we need a noun, and 'freedom' is the noun form of 'free'.
19. A – A national holiday is a special day when many people do not work.
20. B – An immigrant moves to a new country to live; a tourist only visits.
21. C – The correct spelling is 'government', with an n before the m.
22. A – The first word, holiday names and months always start with a capital letter.
23. D – A question starts with a capital letter and ends with a question mark.
24. B – The correct spellings are 'citizens', 'vote' and 'elections'.
25. C – The White House and Washington are names, so they need capital letters, and so does the first word.
26. A – The correct spelling is 'Independence', ending in -ence.
27. D – Commas separate the items in a list, and the holiday name needs capital letters.
28. B – Both words in the holiday name and the month need capital letters.
29. C – The correct spelling is 'president'.
30. A – It has a capital letter for the name, the correct spelling 'biggest' and a period at the end.

Notes for teachers: Use this test after learners have studied basic civic vocabulary and the names of US holidays and months. Part 3 targets common writing mistakes: missing capital letters on holidays and place names, missing question marks, and spelling errors in key words such as government and Independence. As a follow-up, dictate short civic sentences so learners can practice the writing part of the interview.
