Hi Daniel,

How are you? Next Saturday is my birthday. I am eleven! I want to have a party at my house, and I want you to come. The party starts at two o'clock and finishes at six o'clock. My address is 15 River Street. It is the blue house next to the park.

We can play games in the garden. My dad makes a big chocolate cake every year. My cousins Amira and Leo are coming too. They are very funny.

Explicaciones

1. B – Priya le pide a Daniel que venga a su fiesta de cumpleaños, así que el email es una invitación.
2. D – Priya escribe 'Next Saturday is my birthday. I am eleven!'
3. A – La fiesta empieza a las dos y termina a las seis, así que dura cuatro horas.
4. C – Priya dice que es la casa azul que está al lado del parque; River Street es solo el nombre de la calle.
5. B – El email dice 'My dad makes a big chocolate cake every year.'
6. A – Las personas 'funny' (graciosas) dicen o hacen cosas que hacen reír a los demás.
7. D – Priya escribe 'Please don't bring a present. Just bring your football!'
8. B – Priya pregunta 'Can you come? Please tell me by Thursday.'
9. C – Carlos habla de la familia Okafor, que ahora vive al lado de su familia.
10. D – El texto dice 'There are four people'; Snow es un perro, no una persona.
11. A – El texto dice 'They also have a big white dog. His name is Snow.'
12. B – Carlos escribe 'He is in my class!'
13. C – El texto contrasta 'quiet at school' con 'at home he talks a lot', así que 'quiet' significa que no habla mucho.
14. D – El texto dice 'He plays the guitar every evening.'
15. A – La familia Okafor vive al lado de Carlos, así que él puede oír la música desde su casa.
16. B – Carlos escribe 'On Sunday, Femi and I take Snow for a walk in the park.'

Notas para el profesor: Deje que el alumnado lea cada texto una primera vez para captar el sentido general antes de responder a las preguntas. Las preguntas trabajan dificultades típicas del nivel A1: localizar horas y números, distinguir entre los personajes (por ejemplo, personas y mascotas), deducir por el contexto el significado de palabras como 'funny' y 'quiet', y hacer inferencias sencillas. Como actividad de ampliación, los alumnos pueden escribir una breve respuesta al email de Priya o describir a sus propios vecinos en 4 o 5 frases.
