Meet Daniel Osei, Zookeeper

Daniel Osei works at Greenfield Zoo. He looks after the giraffes and the zebras. His day starts very early. He gets up at half past five and arrives at the zoo at half past six, before the visitors come.

First, Daniel cleans the animals' houses. This is hard work, but he doesn't mind. Then he gives the animals their breakfast. Giraffes eat a lot of leaves – about 30 kilos every day! After that, he checks that all the animals are healthy. If an animal is sick, he calls the zoo doctor.

In the afternoon, Daniel talks to visitors. He tells them interesting facts about the animals, and children often ask him lots of questions. 'That's my favourite part of the job,' he says.

Daniel finishes work at four o'clock. He is often tired, but he is never bored. 'Every day is different,' he says. 'I can't imagine doing anything else.'

Notas para el profesor: Dé al alumnado unos 10 minutos por texto y anímelo a leer primero el texto completo para captar la idea general antes de responder. Las preguntas comprueban si los estudiantes saben localizar detalles concretos, como horas y lugares, y si evitan los distractores que repiten palabras de una parte equivocada del texto. Las preguntas de vocabulario se centran en expresiones como 'doesn't mind' y 'available'. Como actividad de ampliación, los estudiantes pueden redactar un breve aviso para su centro escolar o un artículo del tipo 'day in the life' sobre alguien que conozcan.
