Explicaciones

- B – 'Brothers and sisters' es un sustantivo contable en plural, por eso usamos 'How many'.
- B – 'Money' es incontable, y en oraciones negativas con sustantivos incontables usamos 'much'.
- A – 'A lot of' se usa con sustantivos en plural como 'people'; 'a lot' necesita 'of' delante de un sustantivo.
- B – 'Sugar' es incontable, así que preguntamos con 'How much'.
- C – 'Vegetables' es un sustantivo contable en plural, por eso usamos 'many' en la negativa.
- C – 'Milk' es incontable, así que 'much' es correcto con 'isn't'.
- A – 'Homework' es incontable, y en oraciones afirmativas lo natural es 'a lot of'.
- D – Con un sustantivo en plural ('students') usamos 'How many' y el orden de pregunta 'are there'.
- B – 'Friends' es contable y está en plural, así que debe ser 'many friends'.
- A – La palabra 'of' ya aparece en la frase, por lo que solo 'a lot' completa 'a lot of old photos'.
- A – 'Eggs' es un sustantivo contable en plural, por eso usamos 'a few'.
- C – 'Water' es incontable, por eso usamos 'a little'.
- D – 'Apples' es contable y está en plural, y 'only a few' significa una cantidad pequeña.
- A – 'Salt' es incontable, por eso usamos 'a little'.
- D – Aquí 'time' es incontable, así que 'a little time' es correcto.
- C – 'A few' indica una cantidad pequeña: más de uno, pero no muchos.
- B – 'English' (el idioma) es incontable, así que debe ser 'a little English'.
- D – 'Minutes' es un sustantivo contable en plural, por eso usamos 'a few'.
- C – 'Milk' es incontable, por eso usamos 'a little'.
- A – 'Information' es incontable en inglés (a diferencia del español), así que decimos 'a little information'.
- A – 'Animals' está en plural, y en oraciones afirmativas se usa 'a lot of'; 'a lot' necesita 'of'.
- B – Unos seis huevos son una cantidad pequeña de cosas contables, así que 'a few' es correcto.
- C – 'Free time' es incontable, por eso usamos 'much' en una oración negativa.
- D – 'Traffic' es incontable, así que 'isn't much traffic' es correcto.
- C – 'Hot chocolate' es incontable, por eso usamos 'a little'.
- D – 'Days' es un sustantivo contable en plural, así que preguntamos con 'How many'.
- C – 'Juice' es incontable, por eso la respuesta corta es 'a little'.
- D – 'Money' es incontable y no tiene plural, así que preguntamos 'How much money'.
- B – 'Chairs' es un sustantivo contable en plural, así que debe ser 'a few chairs'.
- A – 'Photos' es contable y está en plural, por eso 'many' es correcto en la negativa.

Notas para el profesor: Antes del test, repase brevemente qué sustantivos son contables (eggs, friends, minutes) y cuáles son incontables (money, milk, information, traffic). Conviene recordar que algunos sustantivos son incontables en inglés aunque en español sean contables, como information. El test se centra en errores típicos del nivel A2: usar much con sustantivos en plural, a few con sustantivos incontables y 'a lot' sin 'of' delante de un sustantivo. Como actividad de seguimiento, pida a los alumnos que escriban cinco frases sobre su casa o su ciudad utilizando cada cuantificador, o proponga un juego de preguntas con 'How much / How many' por parejas.
